

APPEAL PROCEDURE

Should an applicant's proposal for financial assistance be declined, the applicant shall have the option of appealing the decision by making a personal presentation to the Community Futures Okanagan Similkameen Board.

If the application is subsequently rejected by this second review, the applicant shall have no further recourse to appeal.

Applicants have the option of re-applying for financing with a new and complete application package at any point following a rejection. The application will be considered as a new application.
